12. REVOCATION OF BYELAWS

1. INTRODUCTION

Newcastle International Airport Limited in exercise of the powers conferred on it by sections 63(1) to (5) and 64 of the Airports Act 1986 and section 37 of the Criminal Justice Act 1982, makes the following byelaws which shall apply within Newcastle International Airport.

2. INTERPRETATION

Where the following words or phrases appear in these byelaws those words or phrases are to have the following meaning:

“Accident” means an unintended occurrence which has an adverse physical result;

“Aircraft” means any power-driven flying machine;

“the Airport” means the area of land including buildings and works for the time being constituting Newcastle International Airport shown delineated in red on the plan, including the Restricted Zone and Controlled Areas;

“Airport car parks” means together the Short Stay Car Park, the Short Stay Fast Track Car Park, the Long Stay Car Park, the Pick Up and Drop Off Car Park, the south side parking and the Park and Fly Offsite Car Park;

“Airport Official” means a person authorised by the Company to act in that capacity;

“Airside” means the area inside the security fence and beyond the Terminal Building Security Controls;

“Animal” means any animal, wild or domesticated, that is either present within or has been brought into the Airport;

“Authorised Standing” means that part of the Airport indicated by the Sign “authorised standing for taxis” or a place designated by the Company for use by Taxis;

“Commander” in relation to an Aircraft means the member of the flight crew designated as Commander of that Aircraft by the Operator or, failing such a person, the person who is for the time being the pilot in command of the Aircraft;

“the Company” means Newcastle International Airport Limited;

“Constable” includes any person having the powers and privileges of a Constable;

“the Customs and Excise Acts” has the same meaning as in the Customs and Excise Management Act 1979;

“Lost Property Office” means any building or part of a building at the Airport which has been designated for that purpose by the Company;

“Operator” in relation to any Aircraft means the person who at the relevant time has the management of the Aircraft;

“Passenger Transit System” means the transit system for the movement of people between a car park, the Airport and the Terminal Building;

“Plan” means the plan attached to these byelaws;

“Pick up/Drop off areas” means the areas designated from time to time for the picking up and dropping off of passengers;

“Portable Entertainment Equipment” means a radio, cassette player, compact DVD or mini disk player, television, computer game or any other device capable of transmitting audio sounds,

“Private Hire Vehicle” means a vehicle, other than a Taxi or public service vehicle, which is used for the purpose of carrying passengers for hire or reward and which is licensed under the Local Government (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1976,

“Road Traffic Enactments” has the same meaning as in section 63(3) of the Airports Act 1986,

“Service Road” means the area at the front of the Terminal building shown shaded grey on the plan,

“Taxi” means a hackney carriage licensed under section 37 of the Town and Police Clauses Act 1847,

“Terminal Building” means the building or buildings at the Airport used as terminals for passengers arriving at or departing from the Airport,

“Terms and Conditions” means the terms and conditions of parking or stopping exhibited at the entrance to and at various locations within the Airport Car Parks and the Pick Up/Drop Off area

2.1 These byelaws may be cited as the Newcastle International Airport Byelaws 2009

2.2 No provision in these byelaws shall apply to any member of a Fire, Police or Ambulance Service when acting in the course of duty, or to any emergency vehicle being used by such a person.

3. PENALTIES

3.1 Any person contravening any of the following byelaws or anyone assisting or procuring others to do so shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine which, in respect of a contravention of:

3.1.1 byelaws 4.11 or 5.19 shall not exceed level 2 on the standard scale,

3.1.2 byelaws 4.1, 4.2, 4.26, 4.7, 4.8, 4.9, 4.10, 5.1, 5.2, 5.5, 5.14, 5.8, 5.11, 6.1, 6.1.2, 6.1.3, 6.7, 6.8 or 6.12 shall not exceed level 4 on the standard scale,

3.1.3 any other byelaw shall not exceed level 3 on the standard scale

3.2 As at the date of these byelaws the relevant levels of the standard scale, by virtue of Section 37(2) of the Criminal Justice Act 1982, are as follows:

3.2.1 level 2 - £500,

3.2.2 level 3 - £1,000,

3.2.3 level 4 - £2,500

3.3 These levels are, however, subject to amendment from time to time by statute or by an order under section 143 of the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980.

3.3 Where any person parks or leaves a vehicle in contravention of any of byelaws 6.2 to 6.6, 6.10, 6.16 to 6.18, 7.1, 7.2 or 7.7, or otherwise contravenes any of those byelaws in relation to a vehicle, the Company or its agents may (in its/their absolute discretion) either:

3.3.1 Apply a Parking Charge Notice

3.3.1.1 A Parking Charge Notice (PCN) may be issued in respect of the vehicle. The PCN will specify:

- 3.3.1.1.1 the sum the registered keeper is required to pay;
- 3.3.1.1.2 the time within which the payment must be made; and
- 3.3.1.1.3 the address to which the payment must be sent.

3.3.1.2 The PCN will also explain that unless payment is made in accordance with its terms, court action may be commenced to recover sum due from the registered keeper under the PCN together with costs, interest and any other sums legally recoverable; or

3.3.2 Apply a wheel clamp to the vehicle

3.3.2.1 The Company, its servants and agents adhere to the British Parking Association's Code of Practice for the clamping of vehicles.

3.3.2.2 Where any vehicle is clamped notices will be displayed giving a contact telephone number and also specifying the fee to be paid for the removal of the wheel clamp. On payment of the sum the clamp will be removed as soon as reasonably practicable, or

3.3.3 Remove the vehicle

The Company shall be entitled to remove any vehicle from an area of the Airport where a sign is displayed advising that any vehicle parked contrary to these byelaws will be removed by the Company. The signs will display a contact telephone number and will also specify the fee to be paid for the release of the vehicle. On payment of the fee the vehicle will be released as soon as reasonably practicable.

- 7.1.1 authorised in writing to do so by the Company, and 7.1.2 he does so from an Authorised Taxi Stand
- 7.2 Maximum permitted number of Taxis
No person shall cause or permit a Taxi to stand on an authorised taxi stand in excess of the maximum permitted number of taxis as indicated by any notice displayed there or as may be provided in contractual arrangements between the Company and the taxi company.

7.3 Entering Buildings

No person shall, for the purposes of plying for hire with a taxi or obtaining fares, enter any building or intentionally obstruct any carriageway, footpath or building, or act in such a manner as to give reasonable grounds for annoyance to any other person.

7.4 To be available for immediate hire

No person shall leave a taxi on any authorised taxi stand unless the taxi is available for immediate hire.

7.5 Disabled Taxis

No person shall allow a taxi that is disabled to be left on an authorised taxi stand longer than is reasonably necessary to effect the removal unless such disablement is temporary and is remedied without delay.

7.6 Cleaning Taxis

No person shall wash or clean out a taxi on an authorised taxi stand.

7.7 Badge

No person shall, when operating as a taxi driver from an authorised taxi stand, fail to display or produce his badge to a Constable or Airport Official when requested to do so upon arrival at the stand.

7.8 Conduct on Authorised Taxi Stand

Where an authorised taxi stand is laid out or marked in such a manner that taxis may only stand one behind the other, as soon as the first taxi in this line is hired, the drivers of all other taxis remaining on the authorised taxi stand shall each move their vehicles forward by one space, and the spaces shall not be filled in any other manner.

7.9 Assisting passengers

A taxi driver shall, when requested by a person who hires or seeks to hire his taxi

- 7.9.1 provide reasonable assistance in loading and unloading any luggage, and
- 7.9.2 convey only a reasonable quantity of luggage.

7.10 Taxi Driver Duties

All taxi drivers shall:

- 7.10.1 take reasonable steps to avoid risks to the health and safety of themselves, the public or airport employees and to comply with any recommendations arising from risk assessments; and
- 7.10.2 use in the correct manner the tag in/out equipment that is provided at authorised taxi stands for the use of taxis.

8. ACCIDENTS

8.1 Accident on Company Property

Where any accident involving a vehicle occurs on any part of the Airport which is not a public road and results in either:

- 8.1.1 injury to any person, or
- 8.1.2 damage to any vehicle, animal or other property,

the driver shall stop and as soon as reasonably practicable, but in any event no later than two hours after the accident, provide to a Constable, Airport Official or any other person having reasonable grounds for requiring them, the details set out in byelaw 8.1.3.

8.1.3 The details to be provided by a driver following an accident are:

- 8.1.3.1 his name and address;
- 8.1.3.2 the name and address of the registered keeper or owner of the vehicle;
- 8.1.3.3 the registration number or identification marks of the vehicle; and
- 8.1.3.4 details of the accident.

8.2 Accidents involving Aircraft

8.2.1 Where any accident involving an Aircraft on the ground occurs at the Airport, the Aircraft Commander if present at the time of the accident, or if the aircraft is being moved by any other person, that person (including the tug driver if the Aircraft is being towed) shall stop and as soon as reasonably practicable, but in any event no later than two hours after the accident, provide to a Constable, Airport Official or any other person having reasonable grounds for requiring them, the details set out in byelaw 8.2.2.

8.2.2 The details to be provided by the Aircraft Commander or tug driver, as the case may be, following an accident are:

- 8.2.2.1 his name and address;
- 8.2.2.2 the name and address of the person who is the operator of the Aircraft at the time of the accident;
- 8.2.2.3 the identification marks of the Aircraft; and
- 8.2.2.4 details of the accident.

8.2.3 The driver of any vehicle involved in an accident concerning an Aircraft shall stop and as soon as reasonably practicable, but in any event no later than two hours after the accident, provide to a Constable, Airport Official or any other person having reasonable grounds for requiring them, the details set out in byelaw 8.2.4.

8.2.4 The details to be provided by a driver following an accident concerning an Aircraft are:

- 8.2.4.1 his name and address;
- 8.2.4.2 the name and address of the owner of the vehicle;
- 8.2.4.3 the registration number or identification marks of the vehicle;
- 8.2.4.4 details of the accident; and
- 8.2.4.5 details of third party insurance cover applicable to him or to the vehicle.

9. LOST PROPERTY

9.1 Application of byelaws

These byelaws shall apply in relation to the safe custody, re-delivery and disposal of any property (except a motor vehicle as defined in section 11 of the Refuse Disposal (Amenity) Act 1978), animal or thing which, while not in proper custody, is found on any part of the Airport to which the public or passengers have access or in any vehicle owned or operated by or on behalf of the Company ("lost property"), excluding any property or thing found on board an Aircraft, in a taxi or on premises let by the Company.

9.2 Obligations of finder

Subject to the provisions of the Customs and Excise Acts, any person (other than a member of staff of the Company, an Airport Official or a Constable) who finds any lost property shall hand it in as soon as reasonably practicable in the state in which he found it to a member of staff of the Company, an Airport Official or a Constable and inform that person of the place and circumstances in which it was found.

9.3 Obligations of recipient

9.3.1 Subject to the provisions of the Customs and Excise Acts, and to byelaw 9.3.2, any member of staff of the Company, Airport Official or Constable to whom lost property is handed pursuant to byelaw 9.2 or who himself finds any lost property shall, as soon as reasonably practicable and in any case before leaving the Airport, deliver such property for safe custody in the state in which it came into his possession to the Lost Property Office and inform a member of staff of the Company or an Airport Official at the Lost Property Office of the circumstances in which it was found.

9.3.2 If before any lost property shall have been delivered for safe custody to the Lost Property Office under byelaw 9.3.1 it is claimed by a person who produces evidence to the reasonable satisfaction of the member of staff of the Company, an Airport Official or a Constable, as the case may be, that he is the true owner, it shall be returned to that person, forthwith, without fee, provided he gives his name and address.

9.4 Lost property records

All lost property shall be kept for a period of not less than three months and a record shall be kept showing particulars of the lost property including details of the circumstances in which it was found.

9.5 Where ownership is ascertainable

Where the identity of the owner of any lost property is ascertainable the Company shall notify the owner that the lost property is in its possession and may be claimed in accordance with these byelaws.

9.6 Exception to Byelaw 9.5

Where official documents, including licences and passports, are found the Company shall wherever practicable return these forthwith to the appropriate Government department, local authority or other body or person responsible for issuing them or for controlling or dealing with them.

9.7 Claims

If any lost property is claimed and the claimant provides evidence to the reasonable satisfaction of the Company that he is the owner and gives his name and address to a member of the staff of the Lost property Office or to an Airport Official, the lost property shall be returned to him upon payment by him of such reasonable charge as the Company may from time to time fix for the return of any lost property

9.8 Disposal of Property

9.8.1 Subject to byelaws 9.8.2 and 9.8.3, if any lost property is not, within three months of the date when it was delivered to the Lost Property Office, claimed by, or re-delivered to its owner pursuant to byelaw 9.7, the Company shall be entitled to sell it for the best price that can reasonably be obtained, or in the case of items of negligible value, dispose of it as it thinks fit

9.8.2 The Company shall be required to retain property of a negligible value for fourteen days after which the Company shall be entitled to sell it at the best price that can reasonably be obtained or dispose of it as it thinks fit

9.8.3 The Company shall be required to retain property of a perishable nature for forty-eight hours after which, the Company shall be entitled to sell it at the best price that can reasonably be obtained or dispose of it as it thinks fit

9.8.4 The Company shall:

9.8.4.1 be entitled to deduct from the proceeds of the sale of any lost property its reasonable storage and sale costs,

9.8.4.2 retain the balance for twelve months from the date of the sale in case of any claim by the true owner, and

9.8.4.3 after twelve months from the date of sale, pay the proceeds of the sale of the lost property to a charity of its choice.

9.9 Opening packages

Where any lost property is contained in a package, bag or other receptacle ("package"), the Company is entitled to cause such package to be opened and the contents examined, or to require the claimant to open it and submit it and its contents for examination.

10. SEARCH

Whilst anywhere on the Airport, any member of the Company's staff or any other person who, by virtue of his employment by other organisations is based at the Airport, shall when requested by a Constable to do so, submit to a personal search, or to a search of his belongings, private motor vehicle or any other item under his control.

11. GENERAL

11.1 Where a Constable or Airport Official reasonably suspects that an offence against any of these byelaws either is being or has been committed by any person, that person shall, upon being required to do so by the Constable or Airport Official, correctly state his name and address and the purpose of his being on the Airport

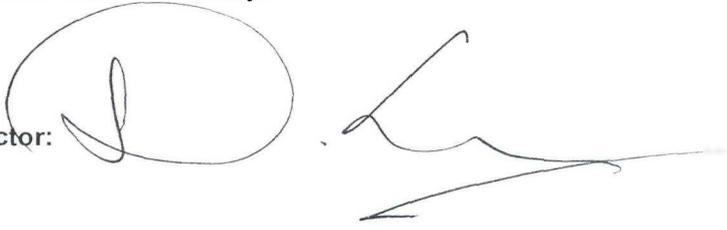

11.2 No Airport Official shall exercise any powers under any of these byelaws without producing written evidence of his authority if required to do so.
